

East 17 and 911 Reunion Tour – Stay Another Day...And A Little Bit More

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

During the 90's when pop wasn't a dirty word, East 17 and 911 were at the top of their game. As far as boybands go, these two were probably two of the most successful and most popular in the UK and across Europe.

East 17 were widely known as the boyband who weren't actually a boyband, weren't squeaky clean and certainly didn't follow the rules. Beginning in 1992 and taking their name from the postcode of their East End hometown in London, East 17 – consisting of Brian, Tony, Terry and John - spanned a career of 5 years, and charted 18 Top 20 singles and 4 Top 10 albums. Some of their hits include House of Love, Deep, Let It Rain, It's Alright, Around The World, the duet with Gabrielle If You Ever and probably their most famous hit, the number one smash Stay Another Day.

911 on the other hand were, and still are, a more traditional boyband. Beginning 3 years after East 17, Lee, Jimmy and Spike took the UK, Europe and Asia by storm, going platinum a staggering 20 times in Asia. They had ten consecutive singles enter the UK charts in the Top Ten and released 4 albums. Firm favourites include Bodyshakin', Don't Make Me Wait, Love Sensation, More Than a Woman and A Little Bit More. They were favourites with teen magazine Smash Hits, performing on their roadshows many a time, and had numerous sell out UK tours.

So now the bad boys and good boys of pop are coming together for a joint reunion tour which kicks off in Cardiff on October 10th. More dates are due to be added and both bands are available for interviews on request. Both bands will perform all their hits, and there are bound to be a few surprises in store.

It's good vs. bad; whose side are you on?
